Worth visiting along the Mariazellerbahn

St. Pölten

The provincial capital

Discover the charming city of St. Pölten before you travel with the Mariazellerbahn

St. Pölten is one of the oldest cities of Austria and is also the youngest provincial capital within Austria. St. Pölten was appointed as a provincial capital in 1986 and is one of the biggest cities of Lower Austria.

Pielachtal

The Dirndl valley

The traditional bright red Dirndl fruits (also known as cornelian cherries) symbolise the incredible richness of the Pielachtal valley.

From its beginnings just south of St. Pölten, the Pielachtal valley stretches across gently rolling hills, up into the Mostviertel Alps and onto the Naturpark Ötscher-Tormäuer. The picturesque Pielach is one of the most unspoiled river landscapes in the whole of Austria.

Mariazellerland

Summer sun and winter wonders

Peppered with mountains, lakes and rivers, and home to one of Europe's most popular pilgrimage churches: the one-of-a-kind Mariazellerland.

In the midst of a magical region.

An area that provides inspiration for all the senses in summer and in winter. Scale the dizzy heights and take in the spectacular natural scenery on a hike or from the saddle.

Naturpark Ötscher-Tormäuer Rugged beauty

At 170 km² Ötscher-Tormäuer is the largest natural park in the whole of Lower Austria - and for many the most impressive too.

On the route to the peak of the Ötscher massif (alt: 1,893 m) pastures, gorges and waterfalls will delight you. The Vordere Tormäuer and Hintere Tormäuer gorges - carved out of the rock by the Erlauf river - are a sight to behold. It's also easy to see why the Ötschergraben is sometimes referred to as Austria's Grand Canyon.

TIP: Combi-Tickets Mariazellerbahn & Ötscher-Tormäuer Nature Park - travel with the Himmelstreppe or panorama carriage and discover the beautiful landscape.

Gemeindealpe Mitterbach Upwards by lift, down at top speed.

There are two chairlifts that will whisk you up in no time from 807 to 1626 metres above sea level to the top of the highest tourist mountain in the Mariazell region.

From the peak of the Gemeindealpe, you'll be able to enjoy an exceptional panoramic view of the surrounding mountains. In summer it's great fun to hurtle down the mountainside on carts, while in winter the Gemeindealpe is THE ski area for all winter sports enthusiasts with a yearning for adventure. The valley station is just a few minutes on foot from Mitterbach train station.

TIP: Combi-tickets providing discounted fares for the rail trip and mountain cart rides.
